Conditions

- Entries will be juried from digital photographs submitted. Please send digital photographs of the proposed art in jpeg or tiff format to info@theclothingshow.com. Please include the artist's name in each file title.
- The Clothing Show reserves the right to refuse any work which is not deemed appropriate.
- The Artist may not substitute another work for one accepted without prior approval.
- Works that will be hung must not exceed 10 lbs in weight and glass framed works are prohibited.
- All accepted submissions must be delivered to The Better Living Centre, Exhibition Place on Friday, September 24, 2010 at 12:00pm.
- The artist will be responsible for hanging, displaying or installing their own artwork in the allocated area.
- The artist agrees to allow the accepted work to remain with the exhibit until the close of the show, on September 26, 2010 at 6:00pm. The artist is not required to be present for the exhibition.
- The Clothing Show charges no display fee or commission fee. Art purchases are made through the Information Desk at the front of show.
- The Clothing Show acknowledges that the Artist retains copyright of the original works.
- Title and artist credit should be displayed near the artwork. Artist Statements may be posted by the Artist.
- The Clothing Show reserves the right to photograph the submitted artwork for the purpose of documentation and publicity.
- The submission of the artwork for display at the show as well as the signature constitutes agreement to the stipulations set out in this submission form.
- The Artist acknowledges that it is in their best interest to procure insurance for their submissions against damage or loss prior to display in the event.
- I hereby release and hold harmless the officers, employees and volunteers of The Clothing Show from any and all claims occasioned by damage or loss of said artwork or by the participation in this event.
