FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Clothing Show presents its spring 2008 shopping event.

For over 30 years The Clothing Show has been serving up a delicious mingle of unmistakably unique, inventive local "must have" lines of apparel & accessories. This Spring 2008, for the first time ever, The Clothing Show takes it to the RUNWAY with a full roster of shows scheduled throughout the weekend.

We are excited to present this new addition to the show at our new location, The Better Living Centre at Exhibition Place.

"This new building has provided us an opportunity to take the show in a new direction, one that presents fashion and art to the public in an accessible and unpretentious way. Fashion and Art has long been interconnected, and we feel that the addition of art in the show is just another way of representing the wealth of local talent." says Producer, Bonnie Meacham.

We are pleased to host the graduating students of George Brown Fashion program with a special preview runway show to kick off the opening night celebration. The designers from our Boutique Section will follow to present their seasonal designs.

Watch the camera's flash as the Loulou Fashion Photography Competition for The Clothing Show gets underway. Both amateur and professional photographers will compete to take the best photos of our runway shows as well as from staged backdrop shots at the show.

Check out the Century of Fashion Competition display in the Vintage section. Collectors bring out their best museum quality pieces to produce the most historically accurate depiction of each decade in the 20th century.

Shop from more than 300 booths from the Boutique, Accessories, Streetwear, Vintage and Sample Sales Sections and find a vast selection to suit anyone's fancy.

Whatever your delight, The Clothing Show is the one stop, full weekend shopping experience for everyone!
